

Jade Valerie, Empty Pages

Let me take you by the hand
And let me lead you
To a place we haven't planned

And sing me your sacred word
And may believe in
And believe in what I deserve

'cause tonight
Only for tonight
Our lives are empty pages

Yeah, tonight
It's only what we write
Our lives are empty pages

There's a new weight inside your eyes
Life has changed you
And baby, it has bruised me too

Just lay down by me and dream
And breathe easy
'cause you know, i can carry you

'cause tonight
We'll leave it all behind
Our lives are empty pages

Yeah, tonight
Just give me tonight
Our lives are empty pages

We both know
That the road you chose
Don't know where it's cold
We hunt my want to live
Tears dry clear
And the things we've seen
Won't hunt our dreams
Tonight yeah

There's no pain, no hurt, no shame
'cause i'm your cradle
Just you and me
And our secret names

And we'll let the world
Just think we're wrong
It doesn't matter
'cause baby, this is our own song

And tonight
Only for tonight
Our lives are empty pages

Yes, tonight
It's only what we write
