

Jade Valerie, Out In The Sea

I hate when they tell me to be brave
They think it alleviates my rage
I know it's gonna be ok
Don't presume
To know what's right for me

I know how to play the waiting game
I know how to rise above my shame
I know there's more fishes in the sea
One is meant for me

Out in the sea
Out in the sea
Out in the sea
Waiting for me
And I know I'll survive these days
Until you come for me

Don't know your name or who you are
Don't know how near you are or far
But I know one day our paths will meet
And I'll know
Where I'm meant to be

These broken hearts and silent tears
Are dues we pay for better years
Cause there's no happiness
Without a test I know

Out in the sea
Out in the sea
Out in the sea
Waiting for me
And I know I'll survive these days
Until you come for me

We know happiness isn't easy,
Isn't easy
And we all know it's a cruel, cruel world
And it's hard to know yourself
And it's hard to ask for help
And even harder to believe

I know how to play the waiting game
I know how to rise above my shame
I know there's more fishes in the sea
One is meant for me

Out in the sea
Out in the sea
Out in the sea
Waiting for me
And I know I'll survive these days
Until you come for me
