

Jade Valerie, Stuck With You

Like a desert wind
That just embellish you
Like the ocean tack
Is driven by the moon
Well like a fallen star
Thats always gone to soon
I wanna be that force invading you
Ohwowwow

I'll be a river running through
(River)
I'll be the voice that carries you
(Carries you)
Something you love
So much you hate it
I wanna get stuck in to you

Wanna know your deepest fears
That wakes you from your sleep
Wanna know the words to hear
When you need comforting
Wanna be that deep impacted
That brings you to your knees
And just break down the walls surrounding you
Ohwowwow

I'll be a river running through
(River)
I'll be the voice that carries you
(Carries you)
Something you love
So much you hate it
I wanna get stuck in to you

In your every secret
In your every lie
In your every moment
Where you cant deny
In your favorite word
Be so true it hurts
Will you walk to me
Yeah, yeah, oooh

(River, oooh)
Can I be that sudden fall
That makes you lose your breath
Can I be thing to rebel
What drives you to exist
What makes your pulse beat fast
With every stolen kiss
In every corner
Every edge of you
Yeah, yeah

I'll be a river running through
(River)
I'll be the voice that carries you
(That carries you)
Something you love
So much you hate it
I wanna get stuck in to you

I'll be a river running through
(Yeah, Yeah)
I'll be the voice that carries you
(That carries you)
Something you love
So much you hate it
I wanna get stuck in to you
Yeah, ohhh
(get stuck in to you)
Ooooh
