

Jade Valerie, Undone

If I take a minute alone now
A moment of peace
But if I find a minute alone now
Know that the guilt is just waiting for me

So I'll let the city take over
And enfold me deep
And let all the lights just run by me
Till they fill up my mind
And let me forget about me

Let's go and get away
And come undone
Our time to drift away
And come undone
Let's go and get away
And come undone
Our time to drift away
And come undone

And let me forget about me

I'm looking out and I'm running out on a balcony
I'm wondering why
Yeah I'm feeling guilty
Yeah I'm feeling guilty
But theres not enough of me
So hey hey hey
I'm looking out and I'm running out on a balcony
I'm wondering why
Yeah I'm feeling guilty
Yeah I'm feeling guilty
But theres not enough of me
So hey hey hey

Let's go and get away
And come undone
Our time to drift away
And come undone
Let's go and get away
And come undone
Our time to drift away
And come undone

And let me forget about me

Come undone

Here comes the sunrise to find me
Still chasing the night
Escape into dark vacant places
Where there's just enough haze to blindfold my eyes

Cause I let the city take over
The music runs wild
So dont even try to come find me
Tonights for the child
Who wants to be reckless and free
Who wants to be reckless and free
Let's drift away
Lets drift away

Let's go and get away
And come undone

Our time to drift away
And come undone
Let go and get away
And come undone
Our time to drift away
And come undone

Let's go and get away
Our time to drift away
Let's go and get away
And let me forget about me
Our time to drift away
And come undone
