

Jaden Smith, Fire Dept

the fire department called my mom said: your son dancing on fires all night long I think I just decided I need a ride home 95%
I go hard still killing the vibe through all day goin' up in the city chateau, so flow it's no Biggie all these fucked up places here we go big wave I was scared, remember that nah homie

I am serious
I was so villainous they killin; niggas for all these perpendicular images the flow is venomous I promise they won't remember this
