

Jadis, No Sacrifice

When I see red
the anger stays inside Console myself by calming all senses
Try to change life
whenever there is doubt Console myself
there's always tomorrow

What remains to be seen Is for you to show what you care for Still retaining the childlike ways
That keep the very soul alive (keep it alive)

There is no sacrifice (to take the light from the darkness)
There's no sacrifice (to take the light)

Having the chance to live out Life-long wishes are found Yet the freedom you seek Will turn this tortured world around (turn it around)

There is no sacrifice (this is that once in a lifetime)
There is no sacrifice (to change your life)

You've got to know when there's doubt Changing a life for what the mind's about
So set in your ways and pressed for time
Imagine the fear
You've got to know
That when there's doubt
You've got to know
