

Jadon Lavik, Come To Me

What do you do when it rains
Where do you go when the world falls on you
Who do you call on when all your hope is gone
All your hope is gone

What do you do in the pain
Where do you run when youre thirsty again
Who do you cry out to when all your strength is gone
All your strength is gone

Come to me all who are weary and I will give you rest
Come to me my yoke is easy and my burden it is light, yeah

When all you can do is fight to hang on
Why do you feel like you can make it on your own
How long can you wait to hold on to his helping hand
Hold on to his helping hand

Come to me all who are weary and I will give you rest
Come to me my yoke is easy and my burden it is light

(Come to me, come to me)

Theres rest for your soul
Come rest your weary soul
Theres rest for you soul
Rest your weary soul

Come to me all who are weary and I will give you rest
Come to me my yoke is easy and my burden it is light
Come to me all who are weary and I will give you rest
Come to me my yoke is easy and my burden it is light

(reprise)

Come to me all who are weary and I will give you rest
Come to me my yoke is easy and my burden it is light
Come to me, to me, come to me
Come to me, come to me, come to me, come to me
