

Jadon Lavik, What If

What if I climbed that mountain, what if I swam to that shore
What if every battle was victorious then would you love me more
Would you love me more
What if I were everyones first choice, what if I went farther than before
What if I stood high above the rest than would you love me more
Would you love me more

You say I belong to you apart from the things I do
You say I belong to you Im in awe of why you do
Why you do, why you do, Im in awe of you, ooh

What if I ignored the hand that fed me, what if I forgot to confess
What if I stumbled down that mountain then would you love me less
Lord would you love me less

What if I were everyones last choice what if I mixed in with the rest
What if I failed what I passed before then would you love me less lord would you would you love me less, oh no oh no oh no

You say I belong to you apart from the things I do
You say I belong to you Im in awe of why you do
You do you do you do

What have I done to deserve your son sent to die for me
What can I give I want to live give me eyes to see
In a world that keeps changin theres one thing that I know is true
Your love is stayin theres nothing else Ill hold onto

You say I belong to you apart from the things I do
You say I belong to you Im in awe of why you do
Why you do

You say I belong to you apart from the things I do
You say I belong to you Im in awe of why you do
Im in awe of you Im in awe of you

The way you love me, the way you do
The way you do , the way you love me, you love me , you love me
The way you do the way you do the way you love me, the way you love you love you love
