

Jag Panzer, King At A Price

Tis' now the hour to seize the throne
I've not the will to go it alone.
I foresee a blade in Duncan's chest.
Last drop of blood i do invest.

The mirror knows the face no one else can know.
Points to a path that i must go

The moon will bring a change tonight
A sleep no one will see my blade
A dagger's thrust will be his end this night
Then to be king i'll pay the price

The lady and I devised a plan
Duncan expires by my hand
I deserve the place where he now stands
To be the ruler of this land

The mirror knows a face no one else can know
Points to a path that i must go

The moon will bring a change tonight
A sleep no one will see my blade
A dagger's thrust will be his end this night
Then to be king ill pay the price

A bloody scene i commit this day,
Torments my mind i must block it away
Place the blame on drunken fools.
Then in my innocence i will rule.

The mirror knows a face no one else can know
Points to the path that i must go

A bloody blade brings change tonight
I am innocent in my blight.
Regal in stature, i take whats mine.
I will be king,
At any price,
At any price.
Regal in stature i take whats mine,
At any price,
At any price.
