

Jag Panzer, Onward We Toil

Warm our spirits around the bonfire
Spoils of war that taste so sweet
Your temples will keep us warm tonight
Roasted flesh provide us feast
Clean water to wash the sins away
We occupy this new turf
Make our mark upon this wasteland
This frozen, barren, worthless earth

Oh, Oh, Oh, Oh, Onward We Toil
Oh, Oh, Oh, Oh, Onward We Toil

We share our lives together warriors side by side
In selfless sacrifice and the sharing of our lives

Gather yourselves and follow me
To a new world 'round the bend
Leave behind this frost bit wasteland
Put this heartache to an end
There's an odd sense of foreboding
We cannot stay here long
Sky riders will search the highlands
For a new place to call home

Oh, Oh, Oh, Oh, Onward We Toil
Oh, Oh, Oh, Oh, Onward We Toil

We share our lives together warriors side by side
In selfless sacrifice and the sharing of our lives
Each dedicate ourselves to the warrior in need
Our courage is rewarded with the dangerous life we lead

We share our lives together warriors side by side
In selfless sacrifice and the sharing of our lives

There's a promise of a new land
A few clicks just up ahead
Some eyes and hearts are filled with hope
Yet some hearts are filled with dread
We must conjure up the will power
Deep inside us all
Time is now to forge ahead
We cannot let hopes fall

Oh, Oh, Oh, Oh, Onward We Toil
Oh, Oh, Oh, Oh, Onward We Toil

We share our lives together warriors side by side
In selfless sacrifice and the sharing of our lives
Each dedicate ourselves to the warrior in need
Our courage is rewarded with the dangerous life we lead
