

Jagged Edge, Ready & Willing

CHORUS

Girl it ain't no thing
If you're willing, we can't swing
I'm ready and willing
I hope you feel what I'm feeling
I want you here tonight
'cause you got just what I like
I'm ready and willing
I hope you feel what I'm feeling

Seems, you been looking 'round my way
I can't hide it, I'm here to say
I been feelin', feelin' quite the same
And it seems strange
That we've had no exchange, of words
And now that must change. We were meant to be
So let's throw the dice and we will see

Girl, I'll give you all that I have
We'll take things slowly, let's not move too fast
I'll make sure there's nothing you need
And I'll promise you baby, that I'll always be

CHORUS REPEAT

Girl, you know you got me in a daze
I won't lie, it's just your ways
That's got me feeling
Your actions just amazed
And, your love is blowing my mind
And your body's been so kind
Girl, you consume my every thought
Baby come with me
Ready or not

Girl, I'll give you all that I have
We'll take things slowly, let's not move too fast
I'll make sure there's nothing you need
And I'll promise you baby, that I will always be

CHORUS REPEAT

SPOKEN: Yo, what's up baby? You know that's the reason I pulled you over here right? Yeah, I'm ready, I'm willing, for whatever.

Gonna put you where you wanna be
I just wanna be your fantasy
Got me ready and willing
Can I show you love, show you love?
REPEAT X3

CHORUS REPEAT
