

Jaheim, Diamond In Da Ruff

Mmmmh diamond
Ohh diamond (diamond) Diamond in da ruff
someone that you don't meet twice We left the Brickz for the 'Burbs turned Mo into Remy matching fur coats and Fendi from the bus to a Bentley coupe with a closet full of shoes yeah Than our smiles turned to frowns ups turned to downs
I don't know where i'm going now
I think about her every once in awhile
We started out like Bobby and Whitney Justin and Britney
Then it all got ugly if it weren't for the money you said i start actin' funny but what's wrong witcha honey then the good turned to bad forgot what we had is it to late to get it back?
I think about her
more than once in awhile Like when i spot a rainbow or see a fallin' star
a set of twins, or a classic car
a four leaf clover, or a two dollar bill it's so rare that it's so unreal
And I don't know how to get over her smile I wonder what she's doin (what's goin on)?
I think about her every once in awhile (once in awhile) I should've came with a ring set a date for next May guess i thought that you'd wait now I hate that I took so long played around wit' her now she's gone now my smiles turned to frowns, ups turned to downs and i don't know where i'm goin (now now now now)
I think about her every once in awhile
We argued like Archie and Edith like Ike turned on Tina but I really didn't mean it I was raised not to hit a woman especially not the one i'm lovin' but when the good turned to bad happy to sad
I wish we could take it back/(How I miss you baby
I think about her every once in awhile
or see a fallin star
it's so rare that it's so unreal
I don't know how to get over her smile
I wonder what she's doin now
I think about her every once in awhile
Your like a star shinning in the broad daylight Something you don't see all the time and now I finally recognize that I shoulda made you all mine never shoulda let you pass me by you put that sparkle in my life

someone that you don't meet twice i'm gonna live to regret it baby ooooh
baby, baby
I miss you...need you...yeahhh
