

Jaime Paxton, Sunshine

There's no beginning we've been here all along.
I find it fitting I'll wake up and you'll be gone.
I'll push my feet into the sand so I don't sink here.
Feels like I'm stranded but the view is pretty sweet dear.

I want you to tell me a story.
Tell me you like me.
Tell me you're sorry.
Tell me you'll write me.
Tell me you're gonna stay with me.

I wanna feel the sunshine on my face.
I wanna feel the sunshine on my face.
I wanna feel the sunshine on my face.

It's gonna be a beautiful moment.
It's gonna be a beautiful day...
Until you go away.

I'll wait for you in my room again.
You can come over if you think you need a friend.
It doesn't matter if you've had too much to drink, dear.
I'll drive you home if you don't really want to stay here.

I want you to tell me a story.
Tell me you like me.
Tell me you're sorry.
Tell me you'll write me.
Tell me you're gonna stay with me.

I wanna feel the sunshine on my face.
I wanna feel the sunshine on my face.
I wanna feel the sunshine on my face.

It's gonna be a beautiful moment.
It's gonna be a beautiful day...
Until you go away.

I look ahead to where I've been and where I'll go.
Jump in headfirst there is no time to take it slow.
I'm in the deep end if you want to swim with me dear.
It doesn't matter where we go but we can't stay here.

I want you to tell me a story.
Tell me you like me.
Tell me you're sorry.
Tell me you'll write me.
Tell me you're gonna stay with me.

I wanna feel the sunshine on my face.
I wanna feel the sunshine on my face.
I wanna feel the sunshine on my face.

It's gonna be a beautiful moment.
It's gonna be a beautiful day...
Until you go away.

Until you go away.

Until you go away.
