

Jaimeson, Say Anything

There you go again
Looking like somethings on your mind but you wont let me know always be your friend
but lately you dont seem quite yourself and hide behind a show
but i know different
i wont let you fall
coz i am here if you need me, need me, need me

Chorus
and when your ready you can say what you want say what you feel you can say anything you want at all
say what you want
say what you feel
you yeah
ooooohhh yeah

whats been going on we used to talk about the things that you had on your mind wheres your smile gone ill leave it to you to chose the time when ever you decide yes ill be patient
i wont let you fall
coz i am here if u need me, need me, need me

and when your ready you can
say what you feel
say what you want
say what you feel
say what you want
say what you feel
say what you want
say what you feel

i feel you fallin dont go so far that i cant reach if theres a change you can make it, make it, make it.

and when your ready you can
say what you feel
