

Jakalope, Get It Back

How do I open this door
Keeping my straight face
Right to the floor
You've gotten old just
Sitting in my pocket
And i've been told it's
Not worth the hassle
That it takes to fight
This losing battle
Hanging my head in disgrace
I'm better off walking away

I swear I'll get it back
I know that I want that
I know I'll get you back

All you thought to be
Has gone to waste
One to many prints
On your face
Just give me one more run
Not about that anymore
I'm holding onto what I've done
I've got to let this ride
If luck is on my side
And what I have to lose
Is barely a lie

I swear I'll get it back
I know that I need that
I know I'll get you back

I know what I need
All it takes
To get it back is
Take it back
What belongs to this
Is that it's not gonna
Be about that anymore
This old weight holds me down
Break me down
See through the score
Alright
I need wrong
Busted
Before the calm
Trusted
Well fuck this
What for?
I'll demand it

I'll get it back
I know I want you back
I'll get it back
I know I need you back
I'll get it back
I know I love you, that
I'll get it back
I know I'll get it back
