Jake, Waiting

VERSE ONE:
I don't know how to find You
But I need You now
You come and go it seems
So far away
You hide Your face from me
Where do You go when I am hungry like a child
For the eyes of a father smiling down
I want to know You love me

CHORUS ONE:

I am waiting for You I am waiting here tonight I am praying for my eyes to see the light

Oh yeah--VERSE TWO:
I don't feel strong enough
To lift my hands to You
But I have tasted Your life
And that's how I know
I am tired of mine
It's only You that I am longing for tonight
Want You to take me from this place
Want You to lift my hands up high

CHORUS TWO:

I am waiting for You
I am waiting here tonight
I am falling on my knees
I can't find You
I am ready for You
I am ready for Your touch
I am praying for my eyes to see the light

Oh yeah---
