[CHORUS]

Same ish
Different day
I can't go on
Living my life this way
I already know
What tommorrow holds
Its the same old same old

[Verse 2]

Being this predictable is not my style
And I feel that I've become her for quite a while Didn't Kelly tell you 'bout a woman fed up and that's why I'm here
cos I'm packing up
Stacking up
Know this might hit you like a ton off bricks
But you don't know what makes me tick
Anymore (Nooo)
I really need you outta my house tonight
thats the only way to make things all alright

[CHORUS]

Same ish
Different day
I said I can't go on
Living my life this way
I already know
What tommorrow holds
Its the same old same old
Same ish (same ish)
Different day (different day)
I can't go on
Living my life this way
I already know
What tommorrow holds
Its the same old same old

[Bridge]

Feel like I'm wasting away
No reason for you to stay
Every move you 'bout to make
Can be predicted
I need to feel the fire
Everytime I'm by your side
Aint no two ways about it boy
You gotta go

[CHORUS]

Same ish (oooooo)
Different day
I said I can't go on
Living my life this way (no)
I already know
What tommorrow holds
Its the same old (same old) same old (same old)
