James Arthur, Nobody (ft. Martin Jensen) dressed up all nice there is no one to impress standing in lines till I smell like cigarettes I don't know why my friends are s obsessed with staying out till we're sober wasting money on regret

I lost my jacket about to lose my mind cause it's 5 am and I got work at 9 I am all alone heading for the exit signs from the minute that I saw you I started thinking twice there's something about you toy steal the room I can't believe I've never seen nobody nobody like you I'm freaking out just tryna play it cool I can't believe I've never seen nobody nobody like you

nobody, no nobody like you nobody like you nobody, no nobody like you nobody like you nobody, no nobody like you nobody, no nobody like you nobody like you fucking it all stay till I'm the last one left for one chance to say you're different than the rest no we're ace to face trying to get it off my chest the lights are going out here wanna come to mine instead?

there's something about you toy steal the room
I can't believe I've never seen nobody nobody like you I'm freaking out just tryna play it cool

nobody like you
I'm freaking out just

nobody, nobody like you nobody, nobody like you nobody, nobody like you I don't know nobody like you nobody, nobody like you nobody, nobody like you nobody, nobody like you I don't know nobody like you

nobody, no nobody like you nobody like you nobody, no nobody like you nobody like you nobody, no nobody like you nobody, no nobody
