James Arthur, Stop Asking Me To Come Back

So you told me to go
You said don't turn around
There was no going back, You said it
You were all out of love Now you changing your mind I forgive you but I, can't forget it we walked these roads too many times I know the ropes and all your lines if it's over

stop asking me to come back stop asking me to do that it's like you're waiting on a better man
and you break me all over again
stop asking me to come back

I don't wanna be friends cause I'll always want more let the end be the end but go on just say it

on a better man
stop asking me to come back

I can't stay myself I need your help /2x

we walked these roads too many times
