James Blunt, Here We Go Again

I have been rejected before

Trying to get another one to come in through my door

She said

I like it here

But your not gonna score

I'm not gonna let you sleep with me anymore

whoaaa

And here we go again

I'm starting on my own

26 years

And Half Of One

And I'm standing all alone

I'm not that bad

In my

In my heart

I am guilty

And of that I confess

I have been thinking of another girl in obsess

I am sorry if it causes distress

But I never loved you

I never loved you

whoaaa

And here we go again

I'm starting on my own

26 years

And Half Of One

And I'm standing all alone

whoaaa

And here we go again

I'm starting on my own

26 years

And Half Of One

And I'm standing all alone

I'm not that bad

In my

In my heart

You can judge me

If you know me so well

I can't change my spots

And won't brake out of my shell

They will commit me

To a lifetime in hell

But

I can't remember where my innocence fell whoaaa<:br&at:

And here we go again

I'm starting on my own

26 years

And half Of one

And I'm standing all alone

Whoaaa

And here we go again

I'm starting on my own

26 years

Apart for one

And I'm standing all alone

I'm not that bad

In my

In my heart

I'm not that bad

In my

In my heart

I'm not that bad

In my

In my heart
