

James Blunt, I

Ooo, these feet carry me far

O, my body o so tired

Mouth is dry, hardly speak

Holy Spirit rise in me

I swear, forever is just a minute to me

And Ill take everything ... in this life

Ill join everyone

Ooo, when I die - have my body, have my mind, have my coat, take my time

These I borrowed, borrowed so far

Turned to dust, fall apart.

I swear, forever is just a minute to me

And, Ill take everything ... in this life

Ill join everyone ... and then the star grows old and dies

And Ill take everything ... in this life

Ill join everyone ... since Im gonna die

Ill take everything ... in this life

Ill join everyone, cause all men die
