

James Blunt, Love Me Better

People say the meaning things
I've been called a dick
I've been called so many things
I know I've done some shit that I admit deserves it
But that, that don't mean it doesn't sting
Saw you standing outside a bar
Would have said you're beautiful
But I've had my share of swallow nights
Cause I was scared to get it right
So I was hanging with whoever

But baby then you
You Love, love, love me,
Love me better
You Love, love, love me,
Love me better
To someone else to someone lesser than you
You Love, love, love me,
Love me better

Love me
Love me better
/2x

When I met you I was treading water
And baby I know you
Know you
I got an eye that wanders
But right now in this car
That we're driving to your sister's
All I'm looking for is something that's forever

baby then you
You Love, love, love me,
Love me better
You Love, love, love me,
Love me better
To someone else to someone lesser than you
You Love, love, love me,
Love me better

Love me
Love

People say the meaning things
Yes, but truth to be told
I don't care what they think
I got someone who is lying in my bed, lying right next to me
Yes, shy, loves, loves, .loves me
