

James Blunt, Should I Give It All Up

I put a smile on my face
To hide that i feel outta place
Should i give it all up?
I am on teh Edge and letting go
After the highs you feel the lows
Should i give it all up?

I'll give you all my love if you want it
Cause yu're the one i see in my dreams
And i am so lonely and scared , and baby
I gotta know , would you ever want me
So baby, please

Cosuld you hold my hand?
Cause it's getting dark
And i am losing grip
On my heart
Could you lift me up
Cause i am breaking down
And i need you here
With me now

Naked and standing in the rain
And i am just tryna hide my face
Should i give it all up?
There was a time i had it great
Now i've gotta live whit my mistakes
Should i give it all up?

I'll give you all my love if you want it
Cause yu're the one i see in my dreams
And i am so lonely and scared , and baby
I gotta know , would you ever want me
So baby, please

Cosuld you hold my hand?
Cause it's getting dark
And i am losing grip
On my heart
Could you lift me up
Cause i am breaking down
And i need you here
With me now
