James Blunt, The Greatest

too much to say too much to lose I get frustrated thinking about the world I brought you to it's a battle of time that I have whit you but don't decide the how the when or if we'll make it through I feel that you deserve a chance to know the truth and to be better than the ones who came before you only to let pride and money weaken them so be the young the brave the powerful cause we need a soul to save us need some to be the greatest so many words veiling the truth

the others turning and it's time for us to choose and people will try to take you down too but if I was a betting man i'd put all my money on you I know that I have nothing left to give ot you to make you better than the man I failed to be the friends and father that I know I should have been so be the young
