

James Blunt, When I Find Love Again

Hey yo, where can i go, when all the roads i take they never lead me home.
Hey yo, I miss you so,
but I'm used to seeing people come and go.

Yeah, I've made mistakes,
next time, I swear I'll change.

When I find love again,
when I find love again,
I'll be much better than the man, I used to be.
When I find love again,
when I find love again,
I'll have a better plan for us.

Hey yo, I'm not ashamed,
' cause everyone has a heart that's meant to break.
Hey yo, don't be afraid,
' cause you're only get stronger from the pain.

Yeah, I've made mistakes,
next time, I swear I'll change.

When I find love again,
when I find love again,
I'll be much better than the man, I used to be.
When I find love again,
when I find love again,
I'll have a better plan for us,
Yeah, you and me.

Yeah, I've made mistakes,
next time, I swear I'll change.

When I find love again,
when I find love again,
I'll be much better than the man, I used to be.
When I find love again,
when I find love again,
I'll have a better plan for us,
Yeah, you and me.

When I find love again,
when I find love again,
I'll be much better than the man, I used to be.
When I find love again,
when I find love again,
I'll have a better plan for us.

When I find love again,
when I find love again,
I'll be much better than the man, I used to be.
When I find love again,
when I find love again,
I'll have a better plan for us.
