

James Carrington, Only For You

Forget how much you know Nothing prepares you for this waiting is easier now its the slow motion feelings i miss

Its quiet all the time in my head
A quiet little space just right ahead
Think i'm gonna turn off the world
Just for some time

God give me space to find that smile Put it back on your face just for a while

Only for you (i care)
Only for you (i bear)
Only for you (i care)
