

James Gang, There I Go Again

Hey ooh what'll I do
Looks like it's the end
Ooh hey could you please stay
There I go again

You know I hate to lose her
The good thing that I had
I would rather lose her
Then watch it all go bad
I guess I'll just go on ahead
There's still some things to come
Yes things are pretty much said
Back where I came from

Hey ooh what'll I do
Looks like it's the end
Ooh hey could you please stay
There I go again

It may be that I found my way
And not see her again
Tomorrow is a brighter day
Why should I pretend
I know I won't see her again
We've gone our separate ways
Making love every now and then
I don't have much to say

Hey ooh what'll I do
Looks like it's the end
Ooh hey could you please stay
There I go again
Hey ooh what'll I do
Looks like it's the end
Ooh hey could you please stay
There I go again
