

James, Go To The Bank

Baby you're such a tease with legs that go on forever Baby come back to me
maybe we'll get Together Baby come back to me
you're such good company Baby come back to me
i don't expect you to stay here i might go Shopping just to... i'd go out (might go out) just to buy those things that are eluding me just to buy something from the mall just to buy something that's eluding me with a friend or two and a friend like you Baby come back to me
you make it look so easy Why do i have to try so hard just to be Happy?
i feel so empty so i might go shopping just to buy those things that would make me feel just to buy those things from the mall just to buy those things that would make me feel much better, so much better.
and i'll call up my sister for my sister is my teacher and she might know what I need cause its not on the telly
for my sister needs me and i'll fix her a cup of coffee and we'll go to the bank, go to the bank it all belongs to Caesar go do the bank
we're going down to Mexico to run away from this culture
i'm going in, I can't receive i'm going in, I have such dreams some love life, some love life
