

James, Hello

You and me
Play this song, the vision
Hope to make this love stretch forever
Don't let go in this now or never Hope there's change enough to say...
Hello
It's over
Hello
It's over
Hello
It's over
Hello
You must say what you're thinking
I'm no mind reader of the stars
We won't get any older
It's so fleeting
I am lost when I'm torn from your heart
Hello
It's over
Hello
It's over
Hello
Hello
Somebody dreams a brave new world
I'm forbidden to breathe its pearl
Late summer evening
Late summer scene
Come together to make this dream
Hello
It's over
Hello
It's over
Hello
Hello
It's over
All but the sea
All but the sea
