James Horner, Shuffle Just As Bad

Pretty woman you lovely such and such Think about the last time You had a gentle touch Did you feel it Ain't it just too much

See somebody pretty Look you in the eye That's the one that touches you Do you need a place to hide And I'm just as bad as anything You ever thought about anyone

And I know our time's goin' to come Just as sure as the risin' of the sun And I know she loves me so

See somebody pretty Look you in the eye That's the one that touches you Do you need a place to hide
