

James Ingram, A Better Way

Wont change my mind, Im on my way,
Wanna see this paradise.
I have a dream, and its so clear,
Wont think about it twice.
Dont try to tell me what to do,
Dont try to turn my head.
Dont try to tell me who I am,
Cos freedom lives in me, so wild and free.
Theres gotta be, a better way,
To put the love, inside my life baby.
Theres gotta be, a better way,
Without your loving here, when will I find love.
Im coming down, on promises,
Wanna put em far away.
Cos what I feel, is oh so real,
Its gonna be a better day.
Dont try to tell me what to do,
Dont try to turn my head.
Dont try to tell me who I am,
Cos freedom lives in me, so wild and free.
Theres gotta be, a better way,
To put the love, inside my life baby.
Theres gotta be, a better way,
Without your loving here, when will I find love.
I can feel it, as the time goes by,
(time, time, time, time)
You spirit getting closer and closer,
I must be on a natural high,
Cos Im feeling no pain.
Theres gotta be, a better way,
To put love inside my life baby.
Theres gotta be, a better way,
Without your loving here, when will I find love.
Comes the answer, whats the question.
All I want to know
(If you wanna be free) talk to me,
But if you wanna run, Ill let you go,
Theres gotta be, a better way,
To put the love, inside my life baby.
Theres gotta be, a better way,
Without your loving here, when will I find love.
Theres gotta be, a better way,
To put the love, inside my life baby.
Theres gotta be, a better way,
Without your loving here, when will I find love.
Theres got to be, a better, better
