

James Ingram, Wish You Were Here

I watched you leaving and never tried to get you to stay Somehow I talked myself into believing that It s just another game we play

But the moment you re gone the heartache begins Like an ocean of sorrow that I keep drowning in Should I reach for the phone or wait for your call I don t care who was wrong I won t go there at all

CHORUS

Oh I wish you were here
It s sometimes like these that I desperately need you
And I wish you were here
There s a world of love inside to share
I wish you were here

And the thing that keeps us from drifting apart Is the fact that we re bound by the soul and the heart Every power on earth every storm we ll survive Come hell or high water love won t denied

Oh I wish you were here
It s times like these that I desperately need you
And I wish you were here
There s a love of love inside us to share
I wish you were here

Far too many nights, too many fights
When we should be making up Let s get past the pride And reach down inside for love

REPEAT CHORUS
