

James Reyne, Slave

There's a light in the valley
There's a heart all alone
And the door is always open

Go away from your window
Pull the shades way down low
And in a whisper words are spoken

Bridge ~
Higher and higher
Taking you there
You've got to fly
You've got to care

Chorus .1 ~
When the feelings gone
And you can't go on
Slave
When things ain't right
You wanna stay all night
Slave

Looking for someone
Who will always be strong
And who will not let you hide

You need your defender
For right or for wrong
You know the path is deep and wide

Bridge

Chorus .1

Chorus .2 ~
When the feelings gone
And you can't go on
Slave
When things ain't right
Don't give up the fight
Slave
