James Reyne, Slave

There's a light in the valley There's a heart all alone And the door is always open

Go away from your window Pull the shades way down low And in a whisper words are spoken

Bridge ~ Higher and higher Taking you there You've got to fly You've got to care

Chorus .1 ~ When the feelings gone And you can't go on Slave When things ain't right You wanna stay all night Slave

Looking for someone Who will always be strong And who will not let you hide

You need your defender For right or for wrong You know the path is deep and wide

Bridge

Chorus .1

Chorus .2 ~ When the feelings gone And you can't go on Slave When things ain't right Don't give up the fight Slave
