

James Rick, You And I

You and I

We fit together like a glove on hand, that's right

And don't you know

That I would gladly take you anywhere you wanted to go

You and me

We are as close as two part harmony, wouldn't you agree

And given the chance

Our romance in the end would surely be the end of me

(Some people must say I'm infatuated with you

I don't care 'cause they really don't know

They'll never see or hear the things I do with you

So far as I'm concerned they all can go to hell

Doo, doo - doo, doo, doo

Doo, doo - doo, doo, doo)

You and I

Will be together 'til the six is nine, that's right

And when you need me

I never hesitate, I always come - it's so much fun

You and I

Although we're poor our love has greater wealth than Hughes himself

And given the chance

That there's an afterlife when we die, it's with you and I

(Some people must say I'm infatuated with you

I don't care 'cause they really don't know

They'll never see or hear the things I do with you

So far as I'm concerned they all can go to hell

Doo, doo - doo, doo, doo

Doo, doo - doo, doo, doo)
