James Taylor, October Road

Well I'm-a going back down maybe one more time, deep down home, October road. And I might like to see that little friend of mine that I left behind once upon a time. Oh, promised land and me still standing, it's a test of time, it's a real good sign.

Let the sun run down right behind the hill, I know how to stand there still till the moon rise up right behind the pine, oh, Lord, October road.

Let the sun run down right behind the hill, I know how to stand there still till the moon rise up right behind the pine, oh, Lord, October road.

It's the big-time life that I can't abide, raise my rent, tan my hide. Sweet call of the countryside, go down slow, open wide.. I did my time and it changed my mind, I'm satisfied, oh. I got so low down, fed up, my God, I could hardly move. Won't you come on, my brother, get on up and help me find my groove.

Keep me walking, October road. Keep me walking in the sunshine, yeah A little friend of mine, October road.

Keep me walking, October road. Keep me walking in the sunshine, yeah. A little friend of mine, October road, help me now.
