

James, Watering Hole

Nobody knows
Nobody knows, angel
Your heart is here
Your heart hurts here
When you want to move
When you get your feeling I've said nothing you will want to see It's all this spinning Oh don't you incite me
Oh don't you explain
There is no meaning here
Just a tension forgetting You've got infinite patience and the scent of the sea Love these days when I'm near you Watering hole... watering hole
Why did you lie
did you lie to me
Why did you say those thing you didn't mean my heart hurts here
what a wonderful feeling I'd had nothing but rain
We just made a decision
It's pain.. it's pain, it's pain I've got nothing to hold you got no chest to contain your cave full of treasures
Watering hole.. watering hole
