

James Young, Faith, Love, And Hope

I'm wide awake, wait for the break
Wait for the break of the morning light
I hear the sound, it's all around
The sound is blasting all through the night
Cold sweat and no reverse
Ain't we supposed to get the message first

It's Faith, and Love, and Hope
We're gonna turn you on to
Faith, and Love, and Hope
We're gonna turn you on

I hold my head, my mind is dead
I never wanted to feel the pain
With no disgrace, all on my face
Financially driving me insane
Bad checks and bills to pay
Aren't we supposed to make it day to day

With Faith, and Love, and Hope
We're gonna turn you on to
Faith, and Love, and Hope
We're gonna turn you on

Hide in my black room
Life begins at noon
Hide in my black room
Why can't you see that it's
Faith, and Love, and Hope
