

James Young, Heaven In Your Heart

There's a heaven in your heart
I see it when you smile
If you don't believe in love
Let me show you
Heaven in your heart
Take a look inside at the
Heaven in your heart
I'll be there for you

I see you counting your troubles on your fingers
You don't see the key that's in your hand
How many nights will you cry into your pillow
Until the day you discover that there's a

Heaven in your heart

(Chorus)
You've taken pictures of all your hopes and wishes
Hung them up in castles made of sand
You can spend your waking hours dreaming of tomorrow
Until the day you discover that there's a

Heaven in your heart
Take a look inside at the
Heaven in your heart
I'll be there for you

And we're looking down that endless highway
But we don't know where to start
Well they say there is a voice that calls you
To the heaven in your heart

When there's only darkness above
And you can't find your way back to love
There's always more than enough
Heaven in your heart

They say that everyone has their own calling
And your life's a work of art
If you're following the signs that lead you
To the heaven in your heart

And you can't find your way back to love
There's always more than enough
Heaven in your heart
