

Jamie Cullum, Intermission music

This is a pause
Were just at half-time
Sequels the intervals end
We go to break
An intermission
Well be together again
We take a rest
Just for a moment
Our mutual story goes on
Stay tuned throughout
This interval signal
Promising much more to come
Now I go
But Im coming back to you
One day I will return
I promise to come if you love me
And I know that you do
I know that you do
Where we leave off
Well put a bookmark
So that we know where to start
Dont be upset
I wont run away
Ive given you all of my heart
Now I go
But Im coming back to you
One day I will return
I promise to come if you love me
And I know that you do
I know that you do
I know that you do
I know that you do
I know that you do
