

Jamie Cullum, Wifey

Mother told me don't look for love
But when I find it just be patient babe
And then my eyes are closing so I guess I have to wait.
I guess I have to wait.
Late at night, I'm thinking of her, don't know if it sounds right
I don't know what she looks like, but she's my babe.
Hell if I will be true
Just as true as God writes, I promise to be her sunlight
Til my dying day.

Wifey where are you,
Wifey where are you,
Wifey where are you
Here I am

So maybe you think, I'm going out of my mind now
Maybe my mind is going out of me
And then my eyes are closing so just how am I to see?

Wifey where are you,
Wifey where are you,
Wifey where are you
Here I am

Late at night, I'm thinking of her but don't know if it sounds right
I don't know what she looks like, but she's my babe.
Hell if I will be true
Just as true as God writes, I promise to be her sunlight
Until my dying day.
