

Jamie Meyer, Can't Tell A Thing

Lately I've been thinking something is crazy
I've got this feeling I'm losing you
Just an illusion or is it for real
You've got to tell me how you feel

Take me back, tell me how we got started
Tell me your story, refresh my mind
Don't want to be insecure, stupid and senseless
Don't want to feel this way
Who wants to feel this way

Chorus
I used to read your mind
Knew every beat of your heart
Knew every word in every song you used to sing
Now I can't tell a thing
Now I can't tell a thing

So I stumbled and took you for granted
So irresponsible you slipped my mind
Guess I was busy chasing a pipe dream
Guess I forgot about you

I know how hard it must have been for you baby
Tell me your story, refresh my mind
Say we can make it, forgive and forget
Don't want to feel this way
Who wants to feel this way

Chorus

I guess our love telepathy
Somehow I got disconnected
I've been so sure that you loved me
Now I can't tell a thing

(Now I can't tell a thing
Now I can't read your mind
Now I don't know your heart anymore)

Chorus
