

Jamie Slocum, Light Of The World

LIGHT OF THE WORLD
JAMIE SLOCUM, ERIC RICHEY

Tonight I'm starting over
Tonight I'm letting go
The sin that used to haunt me
Way down where no one goes
Your freedom felt so far away
But in Your presence that's all changed
Rearranged me

CHORUS

And Lord Great light of the world
You've shown me the way
And I've been gone so long
And Your love and mercy You've given
Is guiding me home
Is guiding me home
By the light of the world

My heart has been so heavy
The pain showed on my face
The years of drifting nowhere
Had brought me to the place where
Your freedom felt so far away
But in Your presence that's all changed
Rearranged me

And Lord great light of the world
You've shown me the way
And I've been gone so long
And Your love and mercy You've given
Is guiding me home
Is guiding me home
By the light of the world

You're the light of the world

And Lord, great light of the world
You've shown me the way
And I was lost, when I was lost so long

Lord great light of the world
You've shown me the way
And I was gone
When I was gone so long
And Your love and mercy You've given
Is guiding me home
Is guiding me home

Light of the world
