

Jamie Stevens, From A Fool To A Winner

FROM A FOOL TO A WINNER

Written by Klarmann/Weber

(verse 1)

I wasn't looking for love
I didn't feel alone
I wasn't prepared at all
Was just on my way home

I didn't miss anything
I led a normal life
Until you came on the scene
Everything seemed to be alright

Someday someday
I caught a look from your sweet eyes
Someday somehow
The sun rose up in my skies

(chorus)

From a fool to a winner
From the wrong to the right
From the depth to the surface
From the dark to the light
From offside to the middle
From routine to surprise
From the void to the center
This is how you changed my life
It's all been revolutionized by you my baby

(verse 2)

How can it be so extreme?
How can I feel so high?

How can it seem that things suddenly take off their disguise?

It might be hard to believe
But it can't be denied
It really happened to me
Must be love at first sight

Someday someday
I caught a look from your sweet eyes
Someday somehow
The sun rose up in my skies

(repeat chorus)

You really got me mesmerized

(bridge)

Is it real or is it another dream
Can a thing ever be that extreme
Am I gonna go out of my mind
Is it some new kind of disease
Coming on as a feeling of bliss
Unpredictable and insidious

Then I don't wanna be cured
No I don't wanna be cured
Oh I wanna be your patient
I wanna stay your patient

I only wanna be treated by you
