

Jan Howard, All I Ever Need Is You

Sometimes when I'm down and all alone just like a child without a home
The love you give me keeps me hanging on honey all I ever need is you
You're my first love you're my last you're my future you're my past
And loving you is all that I ask honey all I ever need is you
Winters come and they go and we watch the melting snow
As sure as summer follows spring all the things you do
Give me a reason to build my world around you
Some men follow rainbows I am told some men search for silver some for gold
I have found my treasure in your soul honey all I ever need is you
Without love I'd never find the way through ups and downs of every single day
And I won't sleep at nights until you say honey all I ever need is you
