

Jan Howard, Crying For Love

If you find someone that you really love
Show that special someone you're worthy of his love
Or then someday you may be someone just like me
Who is crying crying for love that used to be
You must learn to give as well as receive
Show him how much you care and never never deceive
For once I had a love just made for me but I I was so foolish I just couldn't see
So today look at me someone you don't want to be
Who is crying crying for love that used to be crying for love that used to be
