

Jan Howard, You And Me And Tears And Roses

You and me and tears and roses in my memory side by side
For you always sent me roses everytime you made me cry
Tears and roses now remind me that your love was just a lie
For today you sent me roses with a note that said goodbye
And then a little while when the roses die
All I'll have left of you are the tears I cry and cry oh oh oh oh
You and me and tears and roses not much left to fill the home
Roses will be gone tomorrow but the tears go on and on [ac.guitar]
Tup dup to to do tup to to do...
And then a little while...
But the tears go on and on
