

Jan Howard, You Go Your Way (I'll Go Crazy)

My whole world is ending with saying goodbye
I know I can't hold you there's no use to try
Though my heart is breaking I've said all I can say
And I know where I'm going when you go your way
You go your way I'll go crazy thinking about you and missing you so
You go your way I'll go crazy I only have a few steps more to go
[ organ ]
You go your way I'll go crazy...
