

Jana Kirschner, Another Day

Lord so much trouble on my mind today
And it's falling on me like heavy rain
Dont wanna give up this fight
So I'll wait until another day

My hears put a shadow on my lovely heart
Feels like waiting in the dark
Dont wanna give up this fight
So I'll wait until another day

And I stick around
But I can't stop the rain from falling
I stick around
But I can't stop my tears from rolling down

Lord I sold a friend for my own good
And now Im left alone with you
Dont let me give up this fight
Until I find the truth

And I stick around
But I can't stop the rain from fallin
I stick around
But I can't stop my tears from rollin down

Oh, let me wait, let me wait
