Jana Kirschner, Bride Song

Summer is passing you by
If you wanna take my cherry pie
I'll be waiting for you
I'll be waiting for you
All alone
Before the fall
Like a bride
Before the fall

Leaves are falling all around your door And you're afraid of being alone I never said you have to be all mine But when you miss someone

I'll be waiting for you I'll be waiting for you I'll be waiting for you All alone

Winter falls upon you hair You got to thinking that it's not fair Other lovers keep each other warm And you feel the cold

I'll be waiting for you I'll be waiting for you I'll be waiting for you All alone
Before the fall
Before the Fall
Like a bride

I'll be all yours.
